Taking NSAIDs regularly, for example, can cause damage to the kidneys, which, in turn, boosts blood pressure. When it is estimated that only 10 of the dogs in LA are licensed, it would make better sense to collect the other 90 rather than put more out there to be unlicensed.