rose 1.5 percent to 16.91 billion. Johnston told analysts that foreign exchange rates contributed to a 1 percent increase.

Those who are considered at very high risk were recommended to get their LDL levels to less than 70 milligrams.

My son's drug use was covering up some serious mental health issues that surfaced once he was clean for about 4 months.

What if we take all of the terrible customers and strand them on a barren island devoid of food or water?