i keep coming back to this: part of combating this problem is legislation, part of it is enforcement, but a big part of it is culture this morning, i'm ok, still feeling the weakness, etc the governors are joined by "influential conservative groups such as americans for prosperity, funded in part by billionaire industrialist brothers david and charles koch."