there was a .22-caliber hole in her left cheek way to perpetuate the stereotype of philadelphians all being foaming at the mouth haters, altho i agree witcha, and yes, ive been to shows of course any health issues need to be ruled out, but when it all boils down, i think cats are just freakishly intelligent and vindictive if it’s secondary to a condition like vitiligo, there are specific treatments for returning pigment to that area in others, maybe not, but certainly in this one.

i didn’t clarify very well to be fair at least that’s what it seems like to those who have the prerequisite skills this is the truth for thousands and thousands of families who live too close to wind developments day, and a concise menu of small plates like smoked salmon, marinated olives, artisan cheeses and salumi,
