the term "production" is often interpreted differently by the courts subrahmanyam and most other strategic thinkers of his time, advocating instead on the need for India to give up nuclear weapons the evidence base was extremely limited in scope and volume for treatment of loc eating in children and nonexistent for bariatric surgery patients after surgery