what would be the first reaction of all mankind as a group when something like this would happen misconduct in part of the employer to issue a visa without assurance in the worker that he is fit to work?