The update also takes into account the risk of a decline in real-estate prices in the Asia-Pacific region. Ingredients are highlighted to point out the position of salicylic acid, as well as presence of drying alcohols and perfume for those irritated by them. Including DXM, it impairs decision-making abilities and physical reactions can become impaired.