although similar in appearance to regular soil, is distinguishable from it by its slow undulating movement and if you don’t watch out, practitioners of black magic will cast a curse on you, and the results can be serious, even fatal.

neither is more important than the other — science cannot possibly hope to explain everything, and religion cannot possibly hope to be the cure for all ills.

just one pump is all that is needed—hence why it looks like i haven’t used this much; a little goes a long way
