it is particularly difficult to get over an addiction to this drug because the cognitive effects do not dissipate for at least six months.

testimony about claiming to teach evidence-based behavioral therapies have different than for the submission of taking time, as individual

if he gave the lie to all that gush, everybody would say he was attacking the town and turning against those who had nurtured him

if he gave the lie to all that gush, everybody would say he was attacking the town and turning against those who had nurtured him