other DVT symptoms may include swelling, tenderness or a reddish or bluish tint on part of the leg.

No significant adverse events were reported.

There are no standards for the authentication of herbal products, and the industry suffers from fraud and unethical practices by some manufacturers, said Newmaster.